ORDER

% 26.09.2022

1. It is submitted by the learned senior counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner was never arrested by the Investigating Agency during investigation. The petitioner has joined the investigation as submitted.

2. Since, one of the accused in other case, placed in similar circumstances, has since been taken into custody, hence, it is stated the petitioner has an apprehension if he appears before the learned Special Judge, he may also be taken into custody. He relies upon Satender Kumar Antil vs. Central Bureau of Investigation 2022 SCC OnLine SC 825.

3. In the circumstances, let the petitioner appear before the learned Special Judge and in case his application for bail is dismissed, he shall not be taken into custody for ten days, from the date of such order.

4. With these observations, the petition stands disposed of along with pending application(s), if any.

YOGESH KHANNA, J.
